My Promises to you

One day - One wedding

Who wants to share anything on their wedding day? No one. Which is precisely why I only book one wedding on any given day.

(applies only to the following packages: Give it some wellie, Boots on the ground & Final steps)

Flexible date change

After Covid, we're all pretty good at changing plans or sometimes even making entirely new ones, if we really need to! With this new attitude, I offer flexibility when it comes to moving your date, so should the worst happen and you need to reschedule for any reason we will move your date, along with any already paid amounts to a new, available one - with no extra cost to you.

(In keeping with my first promise, I will not offer dates nor book a new date with a pre-existing booking)

Honest advice with no hidden agendas

With years of planning weddings, I've seen my fair share of amazing ideas come to life but also ones that have not worked so well. This can also be said with suppliers and venues. This is why I pride myself on giving unbiased and honest advice to help you make informed decisions for your day.

Transparency

When you receive your quote, every cost will be outlined so there are no nasty surprises along the way.

Plus rest assured that, the factors that make up the prices quoted are down to experience, planning time in all its varying detail and access to unlimited communication. Not the fact we are planning a wedding, where more often than not £'s are usually added when that word is mentioned.

Unlimited Communication

I will always aim to get back to you within the day, or where needed keep you in the loop with any planned leave.

You only focus on enjoying the day

Once we have reached the day, we will be fully prepared with no area overlooked. Allowing you to be in a wonderful position to just enjoy the day as everything is handed over to Pink Wellie, your planner.

(applies only to the following packages: Give it some wellie, Boots on the ground & Final steps)

Kind words

J & L - 22nd July 2023

"Thank you so much for your help this weekend! It made such a big difference and the day was even better than we could have imagined! The table setting looked fantastic and not once did we need to stress about organising during the day. It seemed as if magically the plates were cleared, the dessert was out, the disco lights were on ... and so much more! You were the wedding planner we never knew we needed but we are so glad that we had you."

S & A - 13th May 2023

"Thea was amazing from day one. After very poor planning on my behalf, she was able to take on our cross-continental elopement, effortlessly. With only one month to plan, she made an entire event unfold without a hitch. Truly an amazing person and skilful planner. We couldn't have had the Scotland experience we had without her. ❤️"

H & A - 8th July 2023

"We chose Thea as our on the day wedding coordinator for our wedding in July this year. From our first phone chat, I could tell Thea was fab at her job - She made me feel at ease and was so friendly.

On the day, my husband and I didn't have to think or worry about a single thing - Thea handled it all with ease.

She made us feel so relaxed and kept everything running smoothly even when we got held up a little longer than expected for our photos.

Seeing Thea's huge smile and her thumbs up throughout the day made for a perfect and stress free day!

For anyone doubting they require an on the day coordinator... it's the best thing we did!

We truly couldn't thank Thea enough and will be recommending her services to anyone who will listen.
